Latest Reports From Ontario Say Loss of Life Is Mounting As Flames Sweep On.

(By The Associated Press.)

Ruffin-Green Damage Suit Is Being Heard

The action instituted by Mrs. Pearl Ruffin against Mrs. Berryman Green for $20,000 damages, alleged to have been incurred in a traffic accident last Armistice Day, was begun before a jury of seven men in the Corporation Court this morning shortly before 11 o'clock. As there are a large number of witnesses the case probably will continue through tomorrow.

The suit is premised on an accident which took place last November 11th when Mrs. Ruffin claims to have been knocked down as she was crossing the street in front of the home of W. T. Graveley, on Main street, by a car driven by Mrs. Green.

Opening statements this morning disclosed what both sides expect to prove. The plaintiff will seek to show that Mrs. Green was guilty of negligence and that she struck Mrs. Ruffin just as the latter was about to step upon the sidewalk without seeing her. No effort will be made to prove that Mrs. Green was speeding.

The defense will be that Mrs. Ruffin stepped from behind an automobile proceeding up Main street into the path of Mrs. Green's car and that the mishap was unavoidable.

The jury trying the case is composed of Messrs. Harris, C. K. Carter, Harbison, W. L. Hunter, J. E. Harrison, W. H. Pierce and A. B. Crowell.

Lee Case Sent To Grand Jury; Tried In Absence

Walter Lee, at whose home about thirteen gallons of whiskey were seized by the police on Tuesday night, was this morning tried in his absence and the case sent to the grand jury. Lee appeared to be very ill on the night of the raid and was only summoned. When the case was called this morning no word from Lee came and the evidence of the officers was taken with the above stated results. Later a physician's certificate was sent by Lee, this stating that he was unable to appear in court. The following other cases were disposed of in court this morning:

W. O. Simpleton submitted to fines amounting to about $86 on charges of violating the Mapp act and carrying a concealed weapon. Simpleton was arrested last night with half gallon of whiskey and was also found to have a pistol. That first gave the name of E. A. Smith.

Walter Wilson, colored, fined $24.45 for speeding. Will Jones, charged with house-breaking, turned over to the School-field authorities. The case of J. G. Henderson, charged with creating a disturbance, was continued until Friday.

A continuance was also granted in the case of Thomas Matthews, colored, charged with operating an automobile while drunk and with running the machine without a permit.

Dr. W. A. Robbins, fined $9.45 for creating a disturbance by the use of profane language. The charge was the result of a traffic jam in which Dr. Robbins' machine and a farmer's truck figured.

Dick Williams, colored, was given until tomorrow morning to give $100 bond or good behavior or serve six days in jail, if he is caught here after that time.

A fine of $2.50 was imposed on Harvey Clark, colored, for an alleged assault on Mary Badgett, a negro. Mary is alleged to have slapped Mary several times.

R. L. Bedford, fined $11.50 for driving machine with muffler open. Emily Falden, a negro, was fined $10 and costs for an alleged assault on E. Cole.

Crop Condition in the Old Dominion

RICHMOND, Oct. 5.—Synopsis of weather and crop conditions in Virginia for the week ending Oct. 3, 1922. Moderate temperature and adequate sunshine prevailed during the week and no rain of importance has occurred in any portion of the State. Pastures and meadows are not overstocked. While conditions were favorable for farm work, which is generally well advanced, plowing and seeding are retarded as a result of drought conditions which prevail in some sections. However, seeding progressed in some sections, although there is insufficient moisture for germination. Some late corn in southern counties remains uncut. Apple picking is progressing under favorable conditions and reports on the crop are encouraging.

Note: The harvest of all important crops having been practically finished, the issue of these printed reports will be discontinued for this season with the present number.

Cabell Street Quarterly Meet Set For Tonight

The final quarterly conference of Cabell Street Memorial Methodist church will be held tonight with Rev. R. J. Batton, presiding elder of the Danville district in charge. The annual election of officers and the board of stewards will take place at that time.

The official board only recently unanimously adopted a resolution seeking the return of Rev. O. B. Newton, pastor and strong efforts will be made to retain him. It is however, known that the Rocky Mount church will make a bid for him. Rev. Mr. Newton having made an impression there some time ago when he conducted services in that town. E. G. Mosely, superintendent of Cabell Street Sunday school is one of the district lay delegates to the Petersburg conference.

It became known today that the congregation of Calvary church will make an earnest effort to have Rev. R. J. Allen returned to that charge. Mention of his name yesterday as one of the Danville ministers who might be changed came as a surprise to the minister and to his congregation. The construction placed on the decision is that some larger church in the conference seeks him, but if this be so every effort will be made to have him returned to Danville where he has been for three years. The church has prospered unusually under his administration and the congregation has become greatly attached to him. Rev. Mr. Allen, it is understood wishes to remain in Danville.

There is lively interest here over what is reported to have been the intention of Bishop W. A. Candler to remove all ministers in the conference who have served their present pastorate for more than four years. Should this alleged intention be carried out there will be several important changes. Ministers who have served their present churches for more than four years—formerly the time limit was three—will be asked to leave. Rev. J. M. Latham, pastor of Calvary Street, Danville, seven years, Rev. T. E. Smoot, Centenary, Richmond, seven years; Rev. John E. Winn, D. D. Washington Street, Petersburg, and Rev. F. W. Wells, D. D. Ghent church, Norfolk, five years.

All of these churches are understood to be making strenuous efforts to have the ministers returned. Danville will certainly leave its own minister to have. Latham returned as it is felt that the large Sunday school building now being added is the result of his work and that he should be given an opportunity to enjoy the fruits of his labors. That great pressure will be brought to bear on the bishop to return them seems almost certain.

Just what disposition will be made regarding the others is not well defined. Rev. J. K. Jolly, presiding elder of the Petersburg district is spoken of as being slated to come to Danville although efforts will be made to have Rev. S. J. Battin returned.

Wage Raise Is Granted In Copper Fields

HOUGHTON, Mich., Oct. 5.—The recent 15 per cent. increase in wages granted employees of the Copper Range and Quincy mines operating in the Michigan copper district and the announcement that the Calumet & Hecla and Mohawk and Wolverine companies would shortly readjust wages, it interpreted as an effort on the part of the mining companies to hold together such forces as they now have and add to them if possible. Men have left the district in considerable numbers during the past few months, due to higher wages offered elsewhere. A crippling of mine organizations has resulted, with subsequent higher costs and lessened production. It has been the history of the district that when one or two companies increased wages the others virtually were forced to follow to maintain general morale. Mining costs still are high and earnings small. Although surplus copper is steadily diminishing no substantial improvement in the market is expected until next spring. Copper has been selling recently at 14 cents per pound or a fraction under. Present and contemplated wage increases will mean an increase of costs of from one-half to a cent per pound. The only shattered organizations could be revived and their efficiency increased was to raise wages, even though not strictly warranted by the present price for the metal. Copper mining companies at the close of the war were left with an abnormal metal surplus. Demand for the metal fell off sharply and the price dropped from 26 cents per pound, the war price, to under 12 cents. The majority of the mines reported operating losses, wages were decreased, production decreased, and in the spring of 1921 the Calumet & Hecla and subsidiaries shut down completely. The other companies continued to operate sufficiently only to keep the mines open. Production today is approximately one-half of normal for the district, estimated at 11,000,000 pounds per month. Compared with a pre-war normal of 22,000,000.

Tobacco Receipts Continue Heavy

Breaks on the tobacco market were about the same in size as those of yesterday, these not terminating before the middle of the afternoon. Warehousemen reported a firmer tendency in prices with a keen demand for nearly all grades. J. A. Davis, a farmer from Chatham, reported today that he had received $300 more for one load of tobacco than what he had expected it to bring at auction.

The receiving plants were busy again today grading the receipts which came in during the course of yesterday and last night.

Negro Makes Escape From Auction House

Local police officers were early this afternoon looking for a negro who had stolen a lot of tobacco from a Spring Garden farmer and received the money for it at Piedmont warehouse. Plans had been made to capture the negro the moment he received the check for $149.68, but he managed to make his getaway before he could be caught.

The negro, to whom the check was made in the name of G. Smith, had stolen the tobacco from C. D. Bryant, a farmer of Spring Garden section. The trap was laid to catch the negro when the sale was made and the check presented, the owner and others being at the warehouse practically all the morning. However, the negro managed to get to the window, set the check for $149.68 and beat it. A chase followed and the negro made straight for lower Main street. He dashed into the Lea-Lewis furniture company and rushed through and jumped out of a rear door into the street alongside the canal. Here he managed to escape from view of the pursuers. Police Detective J. N. Campbell and Patrolmen O. S. Mayberry and George Price were searching for the negro and they caught him later near the Westbrook Elevator Co.

Traffic Accident On Lower Main Street

As result of a traffic accident yesterday afternoon in front of the O. K. Service station, on lower Main street, Thomas Matthews, negro, was placed under arrest on charges of operating an automobile while drunk. Just how the accident occurred was not learned but Matthews, who was driving a large touring car, it is alleged, recklessly crashed into a Ford car belonging to J. G. Finch and R. S. Motley's truck, doing all three of the machines considerable damage about the fenders and running boards. No one was injured. Friends of Matthews had taken him from the scene before police officers arrived, leaving the machine there. Patrolman O. S. Mayberry, however, later arrested him. Matthews will be given a hearing tomorrow morning.

R. H. Kreis Badly Wounded At Road Construction Camp

Son of Contractor Brought to Edmunds Hospital Following Shooting Affray Near Stacey—Posse Hunts Culprit.

R. H. Kreis, member of the firm of contractors improving the Greensboro road between Ruffin and Stacey was brought to Edmunds Hospital this morning gravely shot, it is alleged by William Jones, a negro laborer, who early this afternoon was being sought by a large posse with bloodhounds.

Reports from Edmunds hospital this afternoon were that the young man was in serious condition. The bullet entered above the right shoulder and while apparently missing the lung had wrought serious internal damage.

The shooting took place at about seven o'clock this morning, the Danville police department being notified some time later to look for two negroes who were described. Later another message came it being stated that William Jones was the negro who did the shooting and describing him as being dark ginger color, about 27 years of age with a long prominent nose, slenderly built, about 5 feet 8 inches tall and weighing about 150 pounds.

Police Sergeant J. L. Edwards and Police Detective J. N. Campbell on learning that Kreis had been brought to a local hospital and that he was in a serious condition, hastened there in order to obtain particulars of the affair in order to facilitate the local effort in looking for the fugitive negro. Kreis told them, it is reported, that Jones quit work Saturday and returned today for his pay, there being some argument about it. Kreis admitted that in the course of the argument he had struck the negro knocking him down with his fist, this after a passage of words. The negro, Kreis is reported to have said, jumped up and drawing back about five feet, drew a revolver and fired three times point blank at him. Kreis was wounded in the chest and arm, the bullet striking his whole weight fell on a jagged stump which did him damage under the arm. In the immediate excitement Jones and another negro who was with him, made their escape.

The shooting episode took place at what is known as camp No. 1 which is situated close to Stacey. Word was immediately telephoned to Reldisville and to Ruffin and Danville and a large crowd of white men armed, took up the chase after the negro. Kreis found to be in serious state, was brought to Edmunds hospital in an automobile, weakened from loss of blood and the shock of his wound. He rallied, however, at the hospital and was able to talk clearly to the two officers who hastened to the institution. Early this afternoon it was reported from Ruffin that considerable excitement prevailed around the scene of the shooting and that several good sized bodies of armed men were combing the countryside. At noon bloodhounds said to have been taken to the scene from Martinsville, passed through Ruffin north, apparently on a trail.

Jones had not been caught up until one o'clock this afternoon. Dr. Wharton, of Ruffin, who was called to attend Kreis' injuries, stated that Kreis had told him that the negro laborers went on strike this morning for more money and Kreis, who is in charge of the road construction work, representing J. A. Kreis, Knoxville, Tenn., his father, went to meet the leaders of the striking negroes. It was from this interview that the encounter developed. Kreis striking Jones with his fist and the negro retaliating with three pistol shots.

Dr. Wharton said that the impression prevailed that Jones is wounded for several white men, who saw the shooting at a distance and who pursued Jones, fired at him. Several shots were aimed at him and once he was seen to stumble as though he had been hit.

Dr. E. H. Miller, who again examined Kreis early this afternoon, said that it was hard to say just how seriously the man is hurt or to define the nature of the bullet. The bullet seems to have ranged through the neck and may have taken a downward course for the injured man complains of unusual soreness in the right side, though this may be due to the injury sustained when he fell on the stump.

NEW "AERO-COLUMBUS" REDISCOVERS AMERICA

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—From the steerage of a transatlantic liner to a high-speed hydro-airplane flying over New York City.

That was the sudden change in the travels of a young Polish immigrant upon her arrival in America.

Miss Gnendia Kaminkowski had just come from Warsaw, Poland, to Ellis Island when she received an invitation from NEA Service to fly over the city in an Aeromarine Airways sightseeing plane.

She is the first immigrant to gather her first impressions of America from the air, 500 feet above the Woolworth Building. Here they are, just as she recorded them for NEA Service; her article being translated just as she wrote it in Yiddish.

BY GNENDIA KAMINKOWSKI

I don't think Columbus himself met the wonders that I did upon arriving in America. It looks to me that America is surely a land of surprises.

Before I arrived I was very scared of Ellis Island, the place of all travelers in third class passage. I had imagined a sort of a Russian-Polish prison with all its terrors, but they let me right off and told me to go. Was that not good?

Then put before you my surprise when there came to me an invitation to go on an airplane and fly over New York, giving me a chance to fly in the air and to see from a great height the largest city in the world. My pen is too weak to write all my feelings. But I believe you can imagine what they were when I tell you that I had never dreamed of flying in an airplane, and then found myself asked to do this unexpected thing immediately upon my arrival here.

I did not believe my ears. But when I realized that the invitation was true I at once danced for joy. There went through me an odd thought. Maybe there will be an accident and—

But as quick as lightning did it end. I was thrilled, and accepted this wonderful invitation. Flying! They sat me in an automobile and rode with me through half of New York. I sat in the machine and wondered how it is that in America they so receive a third class passenger.

We came to the edge of the Hudson river. My cousin and my girl friend who had come with us from Ellis Island stayed on shore, while I and my flying companions sat ourselves in a small boat which conveyed us to the airplane. They put on me a leather sport cap and goggles. Into my ears they stuffed cotton, and everything was great.

The sun shone. I felt wonderful on the water. I threw my last glance to the bank where my cousin and my friend awaited me. I waved them with my hand the last good-by, and the machine started to clap its wings.

We did not rise right away, but rode on the water like a ship. The plane went faster and faster, and the waves sprayed about us in millions of beautiful drops.

I felt the seaplane leave the water. Gradually but surely, it rose higher and higher. It made me catch my breath. I remained dumb. My heart beat quickly. I lived through something such as I have never felt before. I regret I am so poor in words that I cannot give you at least a part of my sensations.

The sun and waves grew smaller and smaller. The biggest of ships were looking from on high like children's toys in the show windows. That big Statue of Liberty looked like a small person. The largest buildings were like little houses and the whole great city resembled many little tents scattered in a broad field.

The sun shone and warmed the raw, clear air. I closed my eyes and dreamed of the airplanes I saw fly over the city of Warsaw. They used to look so small that I wondered how a man could be in them. And now I myself was in an airplane, where hundreds of thousands of people could look up at us! Suddenly I felt that we were going lower. Bigger and bigger got the river and shore and the buildings and the people. The seaplane swooped downward and gently came to rest on the water. The trip was over!

I cannot give in words what I felt. I only know that something will remain locked in my heart forever. And, too, a new ambition was awakened in me—to fly even higher into the sky and the sun some day in the future.

I do not know yet how America will further please me. But I feel that unreluctantly I have begun to love this new land which gave me this unforgettable surprise on my arrival here.

Activities Among Masons Of City

Masonic activities in Danville have been resumed with the appearance of cooler weather, and all branches of the order are now busy with work and plans for future work. Morotock lodge, No. 210, A. F. and A. M., last Tuesday had a special communication for work in the Master degree and with a noteworthy attendance of members of this and other lodges.

This evening at Pythian hall, Dove Commandery, No. 7, Knights Templar, will hold its stated convocation, with a large number of petitions for elevation to be acted on by the fraters. Eminent Commander Ben W. Beach, who will preside, is a veteran in Masonry and a brilliant orator. The commandery is assured of a busy autumn and the indications are that the applications for elevation to this rank will assure a busy winter also.

Reverend Eagle lodge, No. 122, A. F. and A. M., will hold a special communication tomorrow (Friday) evening in the Elk's lodge-room for work in the Master degree, with one candidate for this distinction. On next Monday evening this lodge will hold its regular stated communication. Euclid chapter, No. 15, Royal Arch Masons, held a special convocation a few days ago and has in prospect a busy working season. The roadways to the Shrine leads through the chapter and commandery, save for those who elect to go the Scottish Rite route.

Homah lodge, No. 70, A. F. and A. M., is working quickly, but is keeping busy, and the outlook for the fall and winter work of the lodge is promising. All of the local Masonic bodies which occupy quarters in the temple, now rapidly hearing completion, have committees at work in the effort to secure lodge, chapter and commandery furniture and furnishings to comport with the handsome new quarters they will soon occupy. It was feared by many that the bodies would not be able to occupy the temple for the St. John's night celebration in late September, but the progress now being made toward the completion of the stationery structure offers hope that the anniversary of the eminent patron of Masonry may be commemorated in the new quarters, provided the furniture can be selected shipped and installed by that date. Only two months of the Masonic year remain before the blue lodges will meet to elect and then install officers.

Hardman-Baisey. Herman, Parker, Hardman, of Spencer, N. C. and Miss Lillie Mae Baisey of Danville were quietly married last night at 8:30 o'clock at the parsonage of Mr. Vernon Methodist church by the Rev. J. Calloway, Jr. of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Baisey, Jefferson street. The groom is the proprietor of an automobile concern in Spencer.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left in a car for Greensboro. Today they will leave on their honeymoon.

ARE YOU A MOTHER

Health Is Your Most Valuable Asset Here Is How to Take Proper Care of It.

Richmond, Va.—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was recommended to me by my mother-in-law who had great faith in its efficacy, and after using it I was an equal advocate of it. I am the mother of eight children, and as a precaution to guard against many of the unpleasant features and the many discomforts that accompany this delicate period, and to give me tone and strength to fit me properly to become a mother, I took the "Prescription" all through four expectant periods, and I am happy to relate I received the full benefit of the medicine and could now have had a more comfortable experience. Also I never found anything to equal Dr. Pierce's Little Women's Pills, which entirely cured me of a disagreeable catarrhal condition. The "Pillars" have been equally as valuable as a gentle laxative. —Mrs. A. M. Eastman, 1907 W. 4th St.

Go to your neighborhood drug store today and get Favorite Prescription in tablets or liquid or send 10c to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package, tablets and write partment. Under the new method of work there has been an increase of 58 per cent in the average attendance upon session of the school; finances have increased 158 per cent, and the general character of the work has kept pace with the advance, in other respects. With a few exceptions the work of the school is now being carried on by officers and teachers who have had at least some training for their work over ninety teachers-training units have been earned by workers in the school during the past three years. So successful has this way been that Prof. J. H. Montgomery, Virginia Conference Superintendent, has pronounced it perhaps the best of inadequate facilities that has come under his observation. The membership of the local church and the citizens of Rocky Mount in general will regret to learn that the Rev. Mr. Tucker is to sever his connection with the local church and community.

The State Instructor, Harris Hart with an able address on Educational Democracy opened the Teachers Institute of Franklin county yesterday morning, Monday, Oct. 3rd, with a 100 per cent in attendance. Mr. Hart's address was on the fundamental basis of public schools, ethical conduct, and economical standard of all schools. He laid stress on the importance of standard elementary schools, and the importance of high way system through the county which promoted education. Div. Supt. of Franklin County Schools R. A. Prillaman followed Mr. Hart with a very beneficiary talk on how the teachers should open the school with devotional exercises, and how the pupils should be classified the first two days after the opening day, and how each pupil should be reviewed, before letting them begin their promotion grade.

Miss Snyder of Richmond gave a most interesting talk on the Reader grade. The Demonstrations by the Second and Fifth grades of the Rocky Mount Graded School were especially fine.

The papers read by a number of the teachers were excellent, and the institute was a most successful one in the history of the institute.

Dudding Raps Trinkle Sharply

Head of Prisoners Relief Society Continues His Agitation for Reforms.

BY GEORGE H. MANNING
(Special to The Bee.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 5.—“You have polly-foxed enough about this thing and I believe that in self-interest you had better get down to brass tacks and clean up things.” That is the message sent to Governor E. Lee Trinkle today by E. E. Dudding, president of the Prisoners Relief Society in answer to the governor's request for an additional list of witnesses who will testify in the investigation of the Virginia State Prison Farm being urged by Dudding.

Dudding reiterates in his letter that Governor Trinkle, in their conference in Richmond, with Dudding last Saturday, declared he was sorry that he had pardoned George L. Craddock of Roanoke after he saw Craddock's name signed to several of the affidavits charging cruelty at the prison farm.

“For what reason did you make that statement?” asks Dudding in his letter to Trinkle. “Was it because the fellow was squealing?”

Dudding declines to answer the governor's request that he forward names of six more witnesses on the ground that because they are convicts they will be punished if their names become known. He takes this position Dudding says, because the governor's alleged attitude after he noted that Craddock was among those bringing the charges.

Dudding declines the governor's request that he forward names of six more witnesses on the ground that because they are former convicts now working at Richmond, in positions obtained for them by the Prisoners Relief Society, they will be punished if their names become known. He takes this position, Dudding says, because of the governor's alleged attitude after he noted that Craddock was among those bringing the charges.

Dudding adds: “I had protected the names of the convicts and ex-convicts who had agreed to testify by not giving out their names. The first act you committed after I gave you the list was to give to the newspapers the names of the ex-convicts who had signed affidavits concerning the prison farm. Now, governor, some people have more sense than they appear to have. Just when you think you are in the saddle you are mistaken. Under the present state of things I cannot see my way clear to give you any more information. You will have to dig for it like I have. But I will tell you one thing and that is that I think you have polly-foxed around about this thing and I believe that in self-interest you had better get down to brass tacks and clean things up.”

Daugherty Hints Ship Bar Must Go

Will Transmit Opinion Affecting Shipping Board Vessels to Treasury This Week.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Attorney General Daugherty said today he had decided all the questions involved in the ship liquor opinion, requested by the prohibition unit after the public exposure that intoxicants were being sold on Shipping Board vessels. Mr. Daugherty said he hoped to transmit it to Secretary Mellon this week. It will run about eighteen pages.

The Attorney General made clear he had considered only the legal phase of the question and not the enforceability of the decision. He added there will probably be some litigation following its publication.

These statements caused the impression that the opinion will be against the Shipping Board, which has made known it will carry the question to the United States Supreme Court. It is conceded that it would be difficult, if not impossible, to enforce a ruling making privately owned American ships dry when outside the three-mile limit.

Mr. Daugherty pointed out that the questions involved are:

First, whether liquor is illegal on Shipping Board and government boats.

Second, whether it is still illegal to carry liquor on the high seas and in foreign ports on privately-owned American boats.

Third, whether it is illegal to carry liquor, sealed or unsealed, in ship shores, or otherwise, under any circumstances within the three-mile limit of the United States.

There was an apparent change in the Attorney General's decision to go into the question of the legality of the twelve-mile limit for operations against rum-runners. It is now the intention not to let that problem figure in the opinion.

Twelve Poisoned; Won't Tell Where

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Police and trained nurses and emergency hospital staffs were thrown in a cordon around a block of Sullivan street today, expecting at any moment to be called as residents twelve of whom already have been made critically ill, were stricken with a subtle poison.

Mushrooms are believed by surgeons of St. Vincent's Hospital who treated the first dozen victims, to have been responsible; but a mystery has been injected into the case by unanimous refusal of the sufferers, even when groveling from terrific effects of the poison, to tell where they secured the food.

Four families were stricken, including several little children, which removed first suspicions that “red” liquor had been responsible.

“Inasmuch as you have decided that it would be too harmful to halt Socolow's trial,” Gov. Miller wrote, “all that remains is to determine how to deal with the officials guilty of the disorderly conduct question.”

Hero Spurns $100 Per Day

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Sergt. Samuel Woodfill, of Tennessee, named by Gen. Pershing as the greatest individual hero of the world war, today turned down an offer of $100 a day for a two-weeks' lecture tour, although the sergeant is not burdened with money and is married. He gave two reasons for declining the offer.

One is his positive refusal to commercialize his exploits. He contends he did no more than any other loyal American would have done under similar circumstances. He declines to pose as a hero.

The other is that he prefers to spend his furlough helping the Cook County American Legion Post in their drive for $350,000 to establish a memorial headquarters and relief fund for needy former service men.

NO NEED OF EXTRA SESSION, SAYS SAUNDERS

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 5.—Attorney General Saunders today rendered an opinion in which he held that there is no necessity for convening legislature to correct error in redistricting for members of the Senate, and that the succeeding legislature can do that, the next election to be under the appointment that has existed for several years. The opinion was sent to Governor Trinkle. The good roads people were supporting this proposition for an extra session in order that the bond issue might be considered.

WOULD MAKE ALIENS PAY HIGHER FARES

BERLIN, Oct. 4.—Foreigners travelling within Germany will be required to pay higher railroad fares than Germans or Austrians, because of the greater value of foreign currency under a proposition advanced by the Vossische Zeitung.

The newspaper notes that such a plan already has been discussed in Bavaria and would be operated similar to the plan of differentiation now effective in the state-owned theatres.

The Vossische Zeitung directs attention to the fact that until recently the rate of exchange on the American dollar enabled foreigners to travel second class from Berlin to Munich for 25 cents. The rate now is only about half a dollar.

Couple Are Held In Murder Case

Jailed in Connection With the Killing of Storekeeper Near Parksley, Va.—“I'll Fix It,” Dying Man's Last Words.

PARKSLEY, Va., Oct. 4.—Mark W. Sissler and wife are being held in Accomac County jail in default of $5,000 bail in connection with the murder of Jesse K. Hurst, 44, who was mortally wounded about the head last Saturday morning with the hub of a cart wheel, dying later in the Salisbury Hospital without regaining consciousness. Sissler and his wife, who lived over the merchandise store of Hurst, about two miles from here, gave the alarm of finding his partner at the back of the store door unconscious, with several wounds in the head. Sissler and Hurst had been in the mercantile business for about three years. Bloodhounds were ordered to the scene and took a trail to a point in the woods, where the piece of iron that was used in inflicting the wounds on Hurst was found, still bloody, hidden in the bushes. The trail was then brought back to the Hurst store and upstairs to Sissler's bed, where it ended. This evidence was sufficient to place Sissler and his wife under arrest.

Dave Sterling and Charles Snyder, farmers, living in the same neighborhood, to whom Sissler gave the alarm on finding the murdered man, are each held under $500 bond as state witnesses.

Ethel Olswang Plans Suicide

New York Girl Who Visited Here Claims Hasen Witt Ruined Her Life.

BY GEORGE H. MANNING
(Special to The Bee.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 5.—Desperate because she cannot induce Hasen H. Witt, of a prominent family of Pennington, Virginia, whom she claims wrecked her life, to marry her Ethel M. Olswang, 18-year-old girl of Woodhaven, N. Y., yesterday bought a pistol from a sporting goods store with the apparent intent of ending her life.

Two weeks ago she had Witt arrested here on a white slavery charge. She said she would drop the charge if he would marry her because, she said, she still loved him although he had treated her shamefully. A week later she withdrew the charges, declaring she did not wish to prosecute him if he would marry her. She said she had not married him because he obtained a divorce a year ago.

She alleged at the time she had Witt first arrested that together they had travelled from town and that it was her husband who would marry her when he obtained the divorce. Yesterday she returned to Washington and bought a pistol and a box of bullets. When she asked the clerk if it would kill her, he said it was a penitence having spent her last funds to follow Witt to Washington and urge their marriage.

At the Y. W. C. A. where she is being cared for she told the police she is penniless having spent her last funds to follow Witt to Washington and urge their marriage.

The fight of the North Carolina corporation commission, which will be represented by A. J. Maxwell and W. T. Lee, of the commission and E. E. Clarke, Washington attorney, who was for 15 years a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission and for a number of years chairman, centers in the effort to have rates to North Carolina cities made with relation to the level of rates applying over trunk lines to Virginia cities, rather than on the higher level applying generally over Southeastern lines.

BANKERS CLOSE THEIR MEETING

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—With the election of J. W. With reference to the Denison bill, the Association expressed its favor for "all proper measures having for their purpose exclusion from sale of securities of doubtful character." But stated the Denison act to be "unfair to farm mortgages, securities," which it is asserted, "should be accorded the highest rank among investment securities and freed from all restrictions upon their negotiation and sale."

CASE AGAINST WITT DROPPED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 4.—Charges of white slavery brought against Hazen H. Witt, of a very prominent family of Pennington Gap, Va., 701 days ago, were ignored by the grand jury that was dismissed yesterday and have been also dropped by the police.

Following dismissal of the grand jury it issued a statement saying that it had failed to find sufficient evidence to bring an indictment against Witt.

Witt is the 30-year-old son of J. F. Witt, of Pennington Gap, democratic candidate for the State legislature from Lee county two years ago, and said to be the grandson of W. F. Hurst, miller and banker of Pennington Gap.

Witt was arrested here about ten days ago just as he started out with his former wife and their three children for a day's outing at the Zoological Garden. The police reported that hearing that Witt contemplated an outing with the woman from whom he had been divorced, Miss Ethel M. Olswang, 19, of Woodhaven, N. Y., preferred charges of white slavery against him and caused his arrest and the interruption of the day's outing.

Miss Olswang alleged that Witt had courted her in New York where they were both employed in office, and after promising to marry her had made trips with her to Washington, Lynchburg, Danville, Cincinnati, Chicago and other cities.

Finally, Miss Olswang said, Witt advised her he had a wife and three children in Washington so could not wed her. He said, however, she alleged, that he intended to divorce his wife and would then marry her (Miss Olswang). Two or three times the wedding had been arranged, she added.

ed, but each time Witt ducked out of the ceremony.

Miss Olswang was an important witness sometime ago in Chicago in the case where Witt obtained a divorce from his former wife.

With the intention of making one more last appeal to him to marry her, Miss Olswang said, she came to Washington ten days ago with her mother, only to find he was associating with his former wife and had planned an outing with her.

It was then that she notified the police and caused his arrest on the white slavery charge.

When the case was called for trial four or five days later, Miss Olswang dropped the prosecution.

"I have thought the matter over," she said, "and have decided that although I have been treated rather shabbily, I still love Hazen. As long as he doesn't marry his former wife I am willing to give him up, because I understand that if he marries again he will be disinherited. Though I still love him, I will try to help him get out of trouble."

YANKEES DEFIED TRADITION AND LOST FIRST CONTEST

BY BILLY EVANS
POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK.
 October 4.—The Yankees defied baseball tradition in the opening game of the world series and lost.

In the ninth inning with the stage set for a chance to tie, the Yankees elected to play to win. A double resulted, ending the final chance.

With the score standing 2 to 2 in favor of the Giants, Phipps opened the ninth with a single. Straight base ball called for Meusel to sacrifice.

What would the Yankees do in the big pinch of the day? I figured Meusel would move Phipps to second and set the table for Schang or Ward to tie up the ball game.

On the first ball pitched Meusel tipped off his intention. He stated to take a lunge at the ball, but it was outside, and he managed to hold back.

The next pitch was perfect. Meusel took a long driving swing. A line drive to right on which Frisch made a pretty play retired Long Bob.

It was an easy matter to double Phipps at first as he was off with the pitch. The one play spelled slow music for the Yanks. Huggins gambled with fate, played to win, and failed.

A play that came up in the fourth inning, really was a key to the Yankees' system. It forecast the events that took place in the ninth.

For three innings the two teams had been held scoreless. Dugan started the fourth with a safe drive to left. Would the Yanks play for a run? With Ruth up the sacrifice was passed up for the hit and run.

Ruth tapped to Frisch and Dugan was forced at second. Defeats can usually be charged to some slip in the play. The opening game proved no exception to the rule.

The defeat of the Yanks and the passing of Bush can be attributed to a slip on the part of the Yanks' star pitcher.

It was a physical, not a mental error. For six innings Bush had pitched wonderful. It was a trying situation that Bush faced. A base hit meant two runs, tying up the game.

Smith was substituted as a pinch hitter for Neft. Bush pitched his heart out working on Smith. Then he got a break. Smith hitting into a double play, routing the side ending the Giants' rally.

When Bush slipped fielding Kelly's tap, he dug a hole for himself and that caused him to spend his ebbing energy in order to get out. He went to the first line in the eighth with the firm determination, but lacked his stuff.

The first four men to face him hit safely. Two runs were over, and men on first and third. When Hoyt was called to the rescue. In this inning Bush, with bases filled, failed to handle the ball that Emil Meusel hit directly at him. Good fielding offered a force at the plate and a possible double play at first. The ball bounded off Bush's glove into centerfield.

The courage of the Giants was the outstanding feature of the National League's play. McGraw's team simply refused to be denied. The unusual feature of the three-run rally in the eighth was the hitting of the first ball by the Giants, a custom not in favor with McGraw.

The box score follows:

RECORD OF LOU DILLON BROKEN

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 4.—Nedda's time beat the record of Lou Dillon, made at Memphis 19 years ago. The day and track were ideal and a big crowd saw the performance and gave the champions a big ovation.

Peter Manning trotted the first quarter in 30, the half in :59 1-2, the three quarters in 1:27 1-2 and finished the mile in 1:56 3-4.

Nedda's fractional time was 29 1-2, 58 3-4, 1:28 and 1:58 1-4. Abidee owned by the Good Time Stable and driven by Walter Cox won the Cumberland Stake for 2:07 pacers, the feature of the racing card.

Edna Early was second best. Brook Farm's four year old filly, Worthy Mary, had little difficulty landing first money in the 2:11 trot, with Lorena Watts second best.

Altaquest by the Arden Homestead farm of Gooden S. Y. landed the 2:19 trot for Will Seckerson after the first heat had gone to Wait in Bond.

Will Dedicate New Monument

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—A massive monument, known as "Friendship", and presented to Brazil by the United States Committee for Brazilian Memorial, will be dedicated shortly after the opening of the centennial exposition at Rio Thursday.

The statue, erected through donations by American business leaders interested in improving commercial relations between the United States and Brazil, measures 25 meters and 45 centimeters in height and resembles in design the statue of Liberty.

John L. Merrill, chairman of the memorial committee, who inaugurated the movement to present Brazil with a lasting memorial as "an expression of friendship on the part of the United States," received the approval of Secretary of State Hughes for it before public contributions were asked.

The selected design for the memorial consists of a colossal figure in bronze, symbolic of friendship, holding in her right hand a sprig of laurel, and supporting with her left hand the flag of Brazil, and the United States intertwined with laurel and palm, indicative of prosperity and peace.

A site for the memorial was provided by the Brazilian government on the Avenida Presidente Wilson near the harbor. The committee which arranged details in this country was formed to act for the American Chamber of Commerce in Brazil in securing nationwide support throughout the United States.

Cuba Prepares Case Against Banking Firm

HAVANA, Oct. 4.—Attention has been called again to an interesting case first circulated last year when the German-Cuban banking house of H. Upmann & Co., closed its doors, by the provisional conclusions formulated by Fausto Alfonso, prosecuting attorney, against H. Upmann for alleged fraudulent failure.

The State attorney says Mrs. Maria Teresa Bances de Martin is not included in the list of those clients of the bank to whom reparation should be made, since she received, before the bank went under, control of the federal bank liquidation commission, $130,000 in jewels and money.

It was reported in May that Mrs. Bances, when first she heard that the Upmann bank was in trouble, went to the Upmann home and by some means of the federal bank liquidation commission, $130,000 in jewels and money.

Another feature of the public prosecutor's findings is the heavy sentence asked for H. Upmann, totaling 20 1-2 years of correctional imprisonment on nine charges of embezzlement, and the payment of an indemnity of $1,547,262.50 to those he is alleged to have defrauded. No date for the Upmann trial yet has been set.

OPPOSE EXPORTATION OF AUSTRALIAN WILD BIRDS

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Oct. 4.—Official action to prohibit the exportation of Australian wild birds is likely on the request of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals which declared that 50 per cent. of a recent shipment of birds to England died en route while the remainder suffered severely.

The commonwealth has not control at present over the export of any but birds of Paradise and it cannot stipulate under what conditions exported birds should be treated. The States, however, protect many varieties of birds and it has been suggested that the States might take action under their laws against any persons possessing birds which are protected, which would include an exporter.

At the recent meeting of the Royal Australian Ornithologists' union a letter was read alleging that a recent shipment of birds was carried under conditions involving extreme cruelty and that the animals did not have sufficient room in which to move. A heavy percentage of deaths occurred during the trip, the letter said.

BABY BLIMPS FOR JOYRIDING

AKRON, O., Oct. 5.—"Vest pocket" dirigibles!

A baby blimp, shown in the picture above, is being constructed here, capable of cruising 500 miles.

Once it is in the air, it takes no more gasoline to run it than an ordinary car.

It carries three passengers in a "chummy" basket.

The lower picture shows officials of the manufacturers preparing for a flight in the blimp.

Tricolet Followed Waterway Route

GREEN BAY, Wis., Oct. 4.—Jean Tricolet, the adventurous Norman, who discovered Wisconsin and founded the city of Green Bay, which is now Bay in 1834, made the trip from Quebec to Green Bay over the projected Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Waterway route.

Just fourteen years after the Pilgrims landed in Plymouth, Tricolet with seven Huron Indian savages, started the treacherous trip in canoes, from the Canadian city, came down the St. Lawrence river, crossed Lakes Ontario and Erie, followed the coast line of Lake Huron until they reached the city of Green Bay in 1834. He made the 1,000 mile trip as an emissary of Governor Champlain of New France, which is now Canada. After spending approximately 10 years isolated from the rest of the world in Indian camps fitting himself for the expedition.

Nicolet's companions were sent into the camps of the Hurons with the announcement that the "Manitoulin" or "a wonderful man" was coming. As he stepped ashore he fired a musket which sent women and children running into their tents fearing the "God of Thunder."

Tricolet got the glory of being the first white man to sail that section which is now destined to become the greatest waterway project ever attempted.

Red Banks where Nicolet and his helpers landed, is a clay bluff standing about 50 feet above the water of Green Bay. A huge boulder to which a bronze tablet is attached commemorates its discovery.

This section is now a conventional summer resort lined with cottages. Archeologists still find relics believed to have belonged to the Winnebago and Potawatomi Indian tribes which once inhabited this region.

INVITE CELEBRITIES TO AUXILIARY CONVENTION

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 4.—Queen Marie of Roumania has been invited to the national convention of the American Legion Auxiliary in New Orleans, October 16-20. Mrs. Lowell F. Hobart, Auxiliary national president, announced today. An invitation also was extended to Mrs. Warren G. Harding, Mrs. Hobart said.

The invitation to Queen Marie was forwarded to Bucharest through Frederick C. Nane, Roumanian charge d'affaires at Washington. Distinguished for her work among soldiers of the allies during the Great War, the Roumanian queen is one of the most popular rulers in Europe among American legionnaires.

The Auxiliary plans to entertain some of the most prominent men and women in the country during the convention, to be held in connection with the annual gathering of the Legion. John J. Tigert, United States commissioner of education, has accepted an invitation to address the convention, and a similar acceptance is expected from George E. Lister, president of the American Library Association.

Other notables invited include: Mrs. M. P. Higgins, president of the National Parent-Teachers' Association; Mrs. Herbert Hoover, who is president of the Girl Scouts of America; Mrs. George Minof, president of the Daughters of the American Revolution; Mrs. Philip A. Moore, president of the National Council of Women; Mrs. Agnes H. Parker, president of the Women's Relief Corps of the G. A. R.; Mrs. Livingston Rowe Schuyler, president of the United Daughters of the Confederacy; Mrs. Cora A. Thompson, president of the Spanish-American War Veterans Auxiliary; and Mrs. Thomas Winters, president of the American Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mary Roberts Rinehart and a number of other well known writers are also expected to attend the Auxiliary convention.

Stresses Need Of Technical Training

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Innovations which pique the fancy of young men, particularly gas engines, aviation and radio, are draining the supply of men who formerly entered the electric railway work, declared William Von Paul, of New York, former president of the Market street lines, at San Francisco, in a report made before the convention of the American Electric Railway association here today.

The committee recommended that special arrangements be made with high schools, universities and other educational institutions to give part time employment to men while they still are in school. It also recommended special classes for foreign-born and other employees who are not attending schools of any kind.

RUSSIA ASKS SWEDISH FIRM TO PRINT RUBLES

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 4.—A Swedish bank note company has received an order from the Soviet government to print notes aggregating a face value of 5,000,000,000 rubles according to the Riga correspondent of Svenska Dagbladet.

The Swedish company in question made the unique proposition that it would accept scrap copper and brass in lieu of cash payment, an offer which proved especially attractive to the Soviet authorities.

Wife Lauds War Hero As Good Cook

CHICAGO, Oct. 3.—Sergt. Samuel Woodfill, whom Gen. Pershing cited as the greatest hero of the world war, is also a mighty good cook, Mrs. Woodfill declared here today.

"There's one medal he doesn't wear outside," explained Mrs. Woodfill, who is here with her husband to help the Cook County American Legion in a drive for funds. "But it's awarded to him just the same. It's the 'M. H.' medal and it stands for 'model husband.'"

"He's just as handy around the house as he was in the army—and helps me with the dishes and is just as good a cook as I am."

Remember that old guy, Procrustes?

HOW he used to have an iron bed, and every time he got hold of a man, he'd lay him down to see if he'd fit the bed.

If the chap was too long, Procrustes would chop some off where it did the most good.

If he was too short, the obliging old scawag would stretch him out till he fitted.

Well, many a man today treats his head just as badly.

He buys a cap—of a certain fixed size. He gets caught in the rain. His cap shrinks, but his head doesn't.

Still—that cap's gotta fit that head!

What to do? You'll find the answer in a "SURE-FIT" Cap.

DUGAL THINKS MITCHELL WON

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 4.—Leo Diegel, declared tied with Abe Mitchell, of England, for the Southern Open Championship played recently at Nashville, in statement here said to be believed Mitchell is entitled to the title.

"I think in fairness to Mitchell, I should give an account of what occurred," Diegel said. "After the play-off, Mitchell suggested to me that we play three additional holes to decide the match. I agreed and in view of the fact that there were some members of the association present and no objection was made, we did so. In this play Mitchell defeated me squarely and fairly and I therefore think he is positively entitled to the championship and I hope the Southern Golf Association will reverse its decision. In the event they are unable to do so I will gladly play another play-off in Nashville with an admission charge, the entire proceeds to go Mitchell to defray his expenses."

FLIER WILL SURVIVE CRASH OF LANDING WITHOUT GEAR

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich., Oct. 4.—Captain Bert M. Skeel, of the Forty-eighth squadron of the army, aerobically pursued group, was recovering today from injuries sustained yesterday when he landed without a landing gear on a field in an airplane he had driven in a test flight preparatory to the Pulitzer air race Oct. 14.

As he rose for his trial sprint the wheels of his landing gear fell from the machine. Unaware of the accident, although other flyers made frantic efforts to warn him of his danger, Captain Skeel circled over Lake St. Clair for half an hour, then returned to the field and crashed in landing.

Hundreds of army and navy aviators who saw the flyer's danger vainly attempted to signal him. A dozen birdmen took the air and circled about the field, but he thought they were challenging him to a race and sped away. As Skeel returned over the field other officers wheeled landing gear into view and dangled wheels from other machines in the effort to transmit their message. They were unable, however, to make the aviator realize his plight.

When it was seen that a crash was inevitable, an ambulance was brought to the field. When Skeel crashed his friends rushed to him and removed him from the wrecked plane unconscious. At a hospital later it was learned that his injuries probably will not prove serious.

Experiments In Citrus Fruits

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 4.—Two Florida horticulturists, one a Chinese and the other a negro, have developed new varieties of fruits which the former believes is destined to fill a gap in the fruit calendar of this section and the latter to introduce a new variety of grapefruit.

Lue Gim Gong, the Chinese, whose estate near DeLand is one of the show places of Central Florida, gained international prominence some years ago when he disclosed the development of a new variety of orange possessing unusual qualities, from the view point of the citrus fruit grower. The orange, which was named the "Lue Gim Gong" in honor of its developer, now is produced throughout the state. In March, 1921, Lue Gim Gong announced the production of and exhibited a grapefruit remarkable for the penetrating power of its agreeable aroma. His experiments with citrus fruits are continuing.

Hezekiah Brooks, negro gardener and fruit grower of Miami, recently announced the successful conclusion of his attempts to produce a new variety of mango. The result is destined to fill a gap in the fruit calendar of this section because, he claims, the fruit ripens between November and January, a period during which the mango is not to be found in this market.

The Brooks mango is similar to the Mulgoba in appearance and texture but it is declared to be superior to that variety in flavor. Some experts pronounce it a cross of the Mulgoba and Sundash. Brooks has presented some of the new mangoes to the University of Florida and experiments on the Deering estate here.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way you get a full pint—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

AILING WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Linton Tells How Helpful
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable
Compound is at This Period

Denver, Colorado.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for seven years and I cannot tell you the good it has done me. It is good for young and old and I always keep a bottle of it in the house, for I am at that time of life when it calls for Lydia E. Pinkham's help. My husband saw your ad. in the papers and said 'You have taken everything you can think of, now I want you to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound!' So I let him get it, and I soon felt better and he told me 'I want you to take about six bottles.' So I did and I keep house and do all my own work and work out by the day and feel fine now. I tell every one about the Vegetable Compound, for so many of my friends thought I would not get well."—Mrs. R. J. LINTON, 1550 West 33d Avenue, Denver, Colorado.

After reading letters like the above, and we are constantly publishing them, should any woman hesitate to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound if she is in need of help? It brings relief where other medicines fail.

Old Poison Ring Nearly Kills Man

ZURICH, Switzerland, Oct. 3.—What is thought to be poison of the fifteenth century, Borgias has been transmitted to a collector here with serious effect. The collector recently bought a ring in Turin, Italy, made in the form of a serpent and guaranteed to be of the Borgia period. The buyer wore the ring and returning here found that his ring finger and forearm had become swollen. A doctor was called and declared that poisoning was due to the ring. Investigation found that there was a small hole under the serpent's head, and from this poison was emitted, but time had weakened its strength.

Farm Overseer Is Gravely Charged

FREDERICKSBURG, Va., Oct. 3.—L. D. Munch, farm overseer, will be given a preliminary hearing before a justice of the peace tomorrow on a charge of attempted assault upon a seven-year-old white girl near Falmouth, in Stafford county. The crime is said to have been committed when the little girl, with a playmate, went to the field to carry water to Munch, who was loading corn.

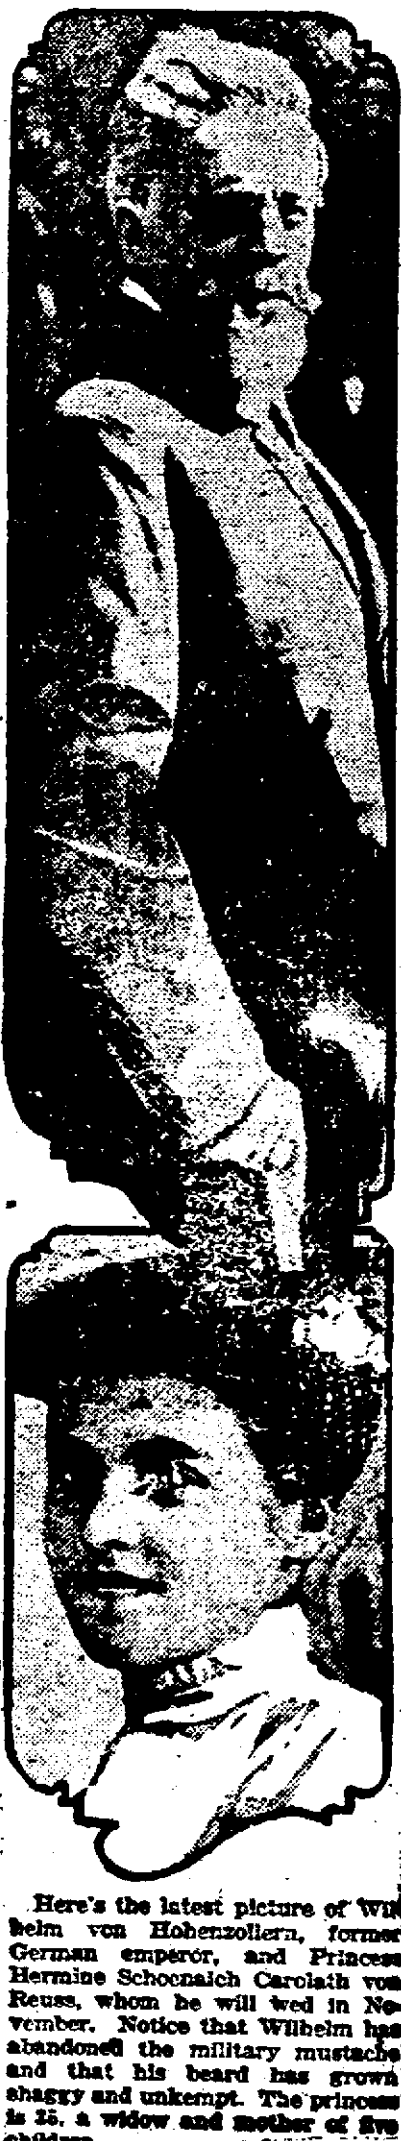

Munch has a wife and one child. He is about 29 year old and came to this section of the State from Alexandria, Va., several months ago.

TO ABOLISH OLD JAPANESE CUSTOM

TOKIO, Oct. 4.—In line with modern thought and action a picturesque custom which heretofore has accompanied the death of any government official of importance, is to be abolished. Formerly on the announcement of the death of such a personage an Imperial messenger in full state dress and preceded by four policemen went to the residence of the deceased to offer condolences on behalf of the emperor. Hereafter, the messenger will wear a frock coat without the usual gold braid and will be unescorted. Even this modified recognition of the services of the dead in future will only be accorded to the most distinguished.

PERSHING WILL ATTEND
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 4.—A telegram received here today from General John J. Pershing's aided camp, said the general would arrive here October 19 to attend the National convention of the American Legion.

Creasy Is Guilty In First Degree Of Lavoy Murder

Jury At Mineola Debates Only Hour and Thirty-Five Minutes Before Returning Verdict—Judge's Charge Held the Issue Was Clear.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—William Creasy, the young Kentuckian who has been on trial for three weeks for the murder last June 23, of his school teacher sweetheart, Miss Edith Lavoy, was found guilty of murder in the first degree last night by a jury in the Nassau County court at Mineola.

The jury was out an hour and 35 minutes. It received the case at 7:15, but went to dinner at a nearby hotel before beginning its deliberations. It retired at 9:15. It announced its verdict at 9:50.

So quickly was the verdict reached that it was rumored about the court room that Creasy had been acquitted. The misapprehension was soon righted, however, when Judge Smith asked the foreman, William H. O'Brien, a realty dealer of Lynbrook, L. I., the perfunctory questions and he replied: "We find the defendant guilty as charged."

Creasy, who had been hurriedly brought from the jail, paled. His lips twitched. He closed his eyes. He was trembling violently when the officers again led him away.

His attorney, Henry A. Uterhart, polled the jury, asking each man: "Is that your verdict?"

He then made a motion for a new trial.

Judge Smith commended the jury for its "untiring devotion to duty and the loyal and efficient service performed for the county. And I do not say that because of your verdict. I would say it no matter how you found."

In the court room, besides Creasy, when the verdict was announced was his aged father, who had come from his farm in Kentucky to testify as a character witness. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lavoy, parents of the dead girl, and Minnie and Eva Lavoy, her sisters.

"I am pleased with the verdict, naturally," said District Attorney Weeks. "I was what I expected. A jury could make no other finding on the evidence."

Judge Smith remanded Creasy for sentence October 7.

In his charge Judge Smith said: "It is for you to decide from her letters whether she wanted to live or die," the judge concluded. "Whether she looked toward a brighter, happier future or whether she was nervous and despondent. Particularly as to whether her feeling for her mother was such as to preclude the thought of suicide. You in mind that it has been established beyond doubt that she lived and died a virgin."

Summation by both sides required six hours, from 1 o'clock until 7 A. M. The morning session character witnesses from Creasy's home were called by the defense, while the prosecution introduced much rebuttal testimony.

District Attorney Weeks, who summed up the case, branded Creasy a man of "bestial passions," who had told Miss Lavoy he either would "live with you or die with you." He said Creasy wanted to kill himself, but lacked the courage.

"He came up here desperate and planned his defense before the crime," Mr. Weeks said. "There is no evidence to show Miss Lavoy wanted to die. I know she said she wanted to die in one of her letters, but she also said in another that she wanted to spend the rest of her days on top of the earth with her mother."

Roman custom forced a son of a Roman man to conduct the funeral services.

Fighting Power Of Giants Wins For That Team

NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—The fighting power of the Giants carried them to victory today over the Yanks in the opening game of the world's series in opinion expressed after the contest by the rival managers.

"The man who has the best fighters wins the most ball games," said John McGraw, manager of the Giants, in opinion expressed after the contest by the rival managers.

"Joe Bush was working fine, although I don't believe he had much stuff on the ball," said the boys, after the Yankees had made two runs, to just try and meet the ball—just to sack out their bats.

"That's what they did in the eighth inning and that proved my belief that Bush was using nothing but speed."

"I'll admit that we had the breaks of the game, and that the Yankees might have had five runs but for some lucky, sensational plays."

"And say, I'm mighty proud of my team. They've never beaten until they're unconscious."

Miller Huggins, the Yankee boss, had no excuse for Bush's cracking in the eighth inning.

The Yankee boss, he said, "should have had more runs. Young's great somersault catch of Scott's liner in the fifth, with two on the sacks, won the game for the McGraw's men. If it hadn't been for that catch we would have had at least two more runs. But it happened."

"Last year we learned that the Giants were a team of fighters and we appreciate their power on the offensive. Their defense, however, was far better than our own."

"I look like we'll have to get more than two runs a game to beat them."

"I haven't any criticism for my players; they worked admirably."

Hughie Jennings, the venerable Giants coach, declared the Nationals won the game by half an inch.

"In the eighth," he said, "when our men filled the sacks, Irish Meusel connected. The ball sailed a half inch above Bush's extended arm and went for a hit that started the going run—half an inch lower and Bush would have had an easy double play."

Huggins said that Bob Shawkey or Carl Mays will do mound duty for the Yankees tomorrow, while the other three would start either Jesse Barnes or "Deacon John" Scott.

"FROZEN NORTH" ROMANCE ENDS WITH DIVORCE

SAN RAFAEL, Calif., Oct. 4.—The "Frozen North" romance of Mrs. Yashta McClure, woman arctic explorer known as Yashta Dalton, is ended. She was awarded a final decree of divorce here yesterday from Captain Alfred McClure, Camp Benning, Ga.

Mrs. McClure became known as the "one woman in the outside world who knows Eskimo life" as a result of four years spent in the frozen wastes of the northland. She lived among the Eskimos, studied their customs, learned their language, and taught them hers.

It was the Arctic region where she met Captain McClure, stationed at the time in Alaska. They were married in New Orleans in 1913.

Commenting on her divorce, Mrs. McClure remarked: "It's strange that the greatest tragedy in my life should have had its start in the land I love best."

BUSINESS CONDITIONS IN CHICAGO GOOD

BY A. D. WELTON
CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Reports made today by a number of bankers and business men picked at random indicated the unanimous opinion that "business is better here than it was and might be better than it is." They rated the business prospect as generally fair, but several complained collections were slow.

Banks have been asked to renew many notes for this reason. Credit conditions, however, are easy, although rates have hardened slightly under seasonal demand. The men questioned were conservative, but they look for good business.

MANUFACTURERS AND JOBBERS KEPT BUSY

BY I. V. SHANNON
NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 4.—Related orders from country merchants who put off buying their fall requirements until they saw what the producer would get for his crops, are furnishing Southern jobbers and manufacturers with a large volume of business.

Trade in practically every line is brisk today and running well ahead of last year's totals. Wholesale dry goods is an exception, but most merchants filled their needs in this line in August and September.

The first touch of fall weather has stimulated retail trade and report-making stores reported increased sales today.

FUEL SITUATION IN PHILADELPHIA BETTER

BY FRANK D. MCCLAIN
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 4.—With sufficient coal on hand to supply their immediate needs, the industrial plants of Philadelphia are operating at normal capacity.

The fuel situation was materially helped by the embargo placed on certain freight shipments by the Pennsylvania railroad. Householders are absorbing rapidly the scant supplies of domestic anthracite reaching here.

Coke is scarce and one contractor who engaged to supply the public schools has fallen down on his contracts necessitating re-advertisement for bids. Thus far the embargo on freight shipments has not worked extreme hardship here.

TO INCREASE STOCK

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 4.—The discovery and development of the Huntington Beach, Montecito and El Estero oil fields by the Standard Oil Company of California is responsible for the proposal announced today to increase the capital stock of that company to $250,000,000 and declare a stock dividend of 100 per cent, according to oil men here. Those fields have been tremendously productive, experts declared today. In announcing ## the dividend the company said: "Due to the reinvestment of earnings during the last year and to the growth of business and the discovery of valuable oil fields which have greatly increased the value of the properties of this corporation the value of its assets is now far in excess of the authorized capital and the directors deem it advisable to increase the capital stock."

WOOL

BOSTON, Oct. 4.—The woolen mills are active. On the whole, woolen goods today are selling better than worsted. The two things which manufacturers fear are an insufficient coal supply for the winter and a car shortage. Manufacturers in general think that a car shortage of considerable proportions will develop within the month.

HUMOR'S SOBER SIDE!

(By JOSEPHINE VAN DE GRIFT)

"The best line I ever pulled," says Will Rogers, movie actor, comedian and virtuoso with the lariat, "is this: 'America never lost a war—and she never won a conference.'"

The line occurs as a part of the animated comment upon topics of the day which Rogers is contributing to Ziegfeld's current entertainment in New York.

"But," says Rogers, "the best line is not always the biggest laugh getter. I think the biggest laugh I ever got was this: 'Yeh, I'm one of those movie actors from Hollywood. But I'm an exceptional movie actor. I been married 30 years and I got the same wife I started out with.'"

The hard labor of being funny with Rogers lies in a painstaking perusal of the newspapers. The current humor, the newest developments in the prize ring, all come in for a little deft turning of his hands. He frequently reads up on a story for a week, or more he admits, before he attempts to submit a gag on it.

Takes Audience in Confidence. He confides this indelicacy mightily to his audience. "I'd sure be hard up," he remarks, "if you folks didn't read the papers. Last summer when I was playing on the roof I had an awful time. The audience was all more difficult to transmit than music. Out portions of speeches have been picked up at 1,200 miles.

JEFF DAVIS' OLD COACHMAN SIGHS

By NEA Service

HEA Service. Oct. 5.—Legend are the men who served Abraham Lincoln, but Anderson Boyd's claim to fame is entirely opposite.

Boyd was coachman for Jefferson Davis when the president of the confederacy lived at Beaton, Miss.

One of the fast disappearing type of old southern darkey, Boyd sighs for "the good old days."

"Ain't many more gentlemen like Marse Davis," he sighs. "World's sure going to fiddlesticks."

"I'd like just once more to be driving down the street with my old high hat on, a yellow ribbon in the middle of my whip, and these high-steppers of Marse Davis trotting proud."

And then I'd sure teach a lesson to those trifling blacks that leans back in the cushions and scoots white folks around in their automobiles.

When they'd come along behind me, honking for me to get out of their road, I'd just crack my whip at them and make them stay a respectful distance from a white gentleman."

A faded print of the confederate president is Anderson's prize possession.

Mother Attacked, Boy Shoots Negro

Lad of 12 Wounds Colored Man Who Seized and Throttled Parent—She Stays in His Cell.

NORFOLK, Va., Oct. 4.—Mrs. Anna Kremlich is in Norfolk county jail tonight, but voluntarily, because her 12-year-old son, Freddie, is there and she won't leave him alone.

Freddie shot George Smith a negro at the Kremlich home at Gilmerston, near the Deep Creek end of the Dismal Swamp Canal, yesterday afternoon, after the negro is alleged to have attacked Mrs. Kremlich and her 17-year-old daughter, Margaret.

Freddie is in jail charged with felonious shooting and the negro is in a hospital, where, it was said last night, he might die.

According to the story told by Mrs. Kremlich the negro came to their home yesterday afternoon when Mr. Kremlich was away at work. The negro seemed crazed, Mrs. Kremlich said. He seized a 10-year-old boy, choked him and flung him aside, then lunged at Freddie, but Mrs. Kremlich interfered. Then the negro seized her and choked her to her knees, after which he seized Margaret but she beat him off, she struck him with a brick and he fled.

Mrs. Kremlich then left Freddie there and went with Margaret to summon help. When she returned she found Freddie had shot the negro and the latter had run into a nearby field and fallen. Help was summoned and he was carried to the hospital, where he has been unable to make a statement as yet.

Mrs. Kremlich implored officers today to hurry with Freddie's trial. "I am so proud of him," she said today. "My own little boy."

Freddie is to protect his little brothers and sister and he'd right. "I would give my life for him."

"I won't leave him here in jail alone."

She is Hungarian, having been in America 22 years. Evidence of former beauty remains in her face. She declined to leave her little boy in jail and volunteered to sleep with him. She slept there last night and has gone back to his cell with him tonight.

The negro she said, has never shown any sign of remorse. He is, however, although he has often seen him in the neighborhood in which

WILL ROGERS

"No," says Rogers, "I never told that kind of joke. I can't even remember 'em. And what's more I never made a wise crack at my mother-in-law. I never told a story that had any swearing in it and at this minute I can't recall that I ever told a story that had any double meaning."

Hates Old Gags. "I haven't got much use for the ordinary run of after-dinner speaking where you memorize a lot of gags six weeks before and then get up and tell 'em."

"I always say just to put me last on the program. Then I get up and run off some stuff on what the other speakers have said and I don't know then that I haven't made it up before."

"Sure it didn't come easy in the beginning, but I trained my mind to do it. Making jokes is just as hard a business as twirling a rope once why you learn to twirl a rope once why you know it and that's all there is to it. But makin' jokes goes on forever."

C AND O TO ISSUE 12 MILLION IN PREFERRED STOCK

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad was authorized today by the Interstate Commerce Commission to issue and sell at par $12,558,000 in six and a half per cent. preferred stocks and to issue an equal amount of common stock which will be used to give converts on privileges to the preferred issue contemplated.

The railroad proposed to spend during the next four years $15,421,000 in general improvement and addition to its entire system, which will enable it at the end of that period to reduce operating expenses by $4,000,000 annually on the amount of traffic normally expected, the commission's report said. The sale of the new securities together with other funds at the road's command will enable it to carry out the entire program.

THREE CHINESE ARRESTED

TAMPA, Fla., Oct. 4.—Three Chinese which federal authorities believe were recently smuggled into this country, were arrested today in a shack on a lonely road, nine miles from Tampa by federal officer here, and H. ARMY AVIATORS READY FOR TRIP

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 4.—Lieutenants John A. Word was received from the weather bureau at Washington that the air waves between the two points probably would be free from storms in the next 48 hours.

The aviators hope to make the record run in from 26 to 30 hours. The fuel supply is supposed to be sufficient for 32 hours. An average speed of 115 miles an hour is predicted by the aviators.

CONVICTED WOMAN GIVEN A SHARE OF ESTATE OF HER SLAIN HUSBAND

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 4.—Mrs. Cora Lou Vinson, under sentence of death for the murder of her husband, Dr. W. D. Vinson, several months ago, was awarded a share of his estate in a decree handed down today by Judge George L. Bell, in Fulton County Superior Court.

Mrs. Vinson who is held in the county jail pending hearing on her motion for a new trial, was given the Vinson home and a share in other property which is to be sold by George A. Vinson, the administrator of the estate.

Mrs. Vinson was convicted last June of first degree of murder for the killing of her husband from whom she had been separated for some time.
